APPEAL OF CITATION #P42176

Bryan Conley Combs had requested an appeal and didn't show up. So, the citation stands.

Jack Hendricks made a motion to uphold the citation. The motion was seconded by Roger Hartner and the board unanimously approved.

APPEAL OF CITATION #P42195

Artur Menshikov came before the board to appeal a parking citation he received for parking in a Permit Only space. He said he is an auditor working at the courthouse right now. He said he asked them on a phone conversation about where he needed to park. The person he spoke with said park in the side parking lot. Mr. Menshikov said when he got there that day he seen some numbered spaces and he didn't park in those afraid that he would take someone's space. So, he parked in the next row over where the spaces weren't numbered and didn't see the permit only sign. After receiving the citation he took it back in the courthouse and someone explained to him that was a city lot and showed him where courthouse parking was. He immediately moved his vehicle to the appropriate space.

Jack Hendricks made a motion dismiss this citation. The motion was seconded by Roger Hartner and the board unanimously approved.

ADJOURN:

Roger Hartner made a motion to adjourn at 9:35 am. Jack Hendricks seconded the motion and the board unanimously approved.

APPROVED:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "J. Hendricks", written over a horizontal line.
