

Assistance for Boyle County Homeless Residents

Updated: 12/1/23/23

Housing Assistance:

At this time, no Emergency Homeless Shelter exists in Boyle County. Other housing resources are as follows:

- Boyle County Health Department short-term homelessness assistance grant (including very brief stays in a hotel): Call Hilary Blevins, at (859) 324-2659.
- Hope Network short-term assistance for brief local hotel stay: Call James Hunn at (757)660-0822. As of 12/1/23: *Note: As of 12/1/23, this resource is not available.
- Shepherds House, Danville: Transitional sober living housing for men and women with Substance Use Disorders; Some emergency assistance with clothing, hygiene supplies, referrals: Call (859) 209-4242 or(859) 940-7921
- Housing Authority: Applications for low-income housing with IDs required: Call (859) 236-6116
- Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers; Applications for low and moderate income housing with IDS required: Call (859) 236-0039
- Greenhouse 17 Shelter for Victims of Intimate Partner Violence (shelter located in Lexington; local community services available): Call (800) 522-2022
- Family Services of Boyle County limited assistance for housing and utility payments for Boyle County residents and provides needs screening for some local churches: Call (859)236-3863
- Haven Care Pregnancy Resource Center assistance for pregnant parents: Call (859) 236-9282
- Salvation Army limited utility and other assistance for those facing eviction: Call (859) 236-0457
- Goodwill Industries of Kentucky assistance for reducing poverty and promoting self-sufficiency: Call (859) 380-0922
- Bluegrass Community Action coaching and help with food stamps, Medicaid, child care,housing, transportation, employment: Call Julia Turpin, (502)232-4456
- Financial Assistance – 1 X per every 12 months, with disconnect notice or eviction notice: Salvation Army, Call 849-236-4473 for an appt.
- Some county and city churches offer short-term housing assistance as funds permit
- Some Substance Use Disorder treatment programs offer step-down long-term housing after completed treatment
- Nicholasville Shelter (located in downtown Nicholasville): Call (859-813-0233
- Catholic Action Center of Lexington Shelter: Call (859)514-7210
- Turnersville Christian Mission Shelter, Lincoln County: Call (859) 583-8155
- Homeless Veterans regional services: Call (859) 233-4511, Ex 2203, or (859) 333-7682

Food Assistance:

- Food Pantries:
New Hope Food Pantry, 410 Fryes Lane: Call (859) 319-0263
Community Friends Outreach, 4620 Hustonville Road, Junction City: Call (859)374-5009
Perryville Food Bank at Perryville Baptist Church: Call (859) 332-8721
Salvation Army, 519 S. 4th St., one time per month food pantry assistance: Call (859)236-4473
Housing Authority Resident Food Panties: Call Lori Cook (859)324-3207
- Blessing Boxes with simple nonperishable foods are found throughout the city and county
- Back Pack Kids provides local schools students in need with weekend food supplies: Contact School Family Resource/Youth Services Center Director for the student's school
- Boyle County Syringe Exchange Harm Reduction Program provides simple foods as available to Syringe Exchange participants
- WIC Program for low-income pregnant, breastfeeding mothers and children up to age 5 Boyle County Health Department: Call (859) 236-2053
- SNAP Foodstamps Program: Department for Community Based Services: Call (859)306-8959
- Senior Citizens Meals on Wheels for qualifying Seniors: Call (859) 236-2070
- Soups on Us Local churches Sat. lunch only delivery: Call SS. Peter & Paul to sign up for delivery (859)236-2111

*NOTE: Send any updates to Kathy Miles, at kathy.miles@centre.edu, or text to (859)516-5384 until further central info coordination is designated.